

Receptionists night and day for Four Points Flex by Sheraton Vejle

Now is your chance to become part of the team at the fantastic Four Points Flex by Sheraton Vejle. This beautiful and modern hotel is located on Havneøen, a new and exclusive urban and residential area close to the city center, offering stunning views of Vejle Fjord. On the 11th floor, you'll find the reception and breakfast area, boasting the most amazing views of both the city and the water. If you become our new star team member, this is where you'll be spending much of your time.

As part of our recent brand conversion, we have not only transformed the hotel but also extended our opening hours. We are therefore looking for one or more outgoing, welcoming, and responsible night porters and receptionists. These positions involve a wide range of tasks, so you should be comfortable handling multiple responsibilities at once. The work you do at night lays the foundation for a structured and well-planned morning and evening shift for your colleagues - and vice versa. Most importantly, your role is to ensure that every guest enjoys an excellent hotel experience from check-in to check-out - always with a smile.

WORKING HOURS AND FLEXIBILITY

- Receptionist, night Approx. 10 hours per week, primarily night shifts every other weekend. Additional shifts available during holidays, sick leave etc. Evening shifts may also be an option
- Receptionist, day Morning, evening and mid-shifts – hours to be agreed upon individually. We are flexible and happy to accommodate your preferences regarding work hours

Regardless of whether you are hired with a fixed number of hours or as a substitute, shifts may be scheduled on any day of the week, including weekends and public holidays.
